ANS Auditing and Safety Management Training Course

Course Objectives (AIMs)

- The course aims at acquainting participants, Auditors and Audits, with the up to date Air Navigation Services knowledge and the comprehension of the key elements of the auditing process, underlining the critical and safety issues affecting the ANS operations which should go under inspection and at enhancing their knowledge and capabilities in the audit, audit planning development, inspections, interviewing, testing, verification, implementation and its re-viewing in addition to resource identification, exploiting and allocation to enhance participants auditing capabilities and therefore increase safety, Security, efficiency reduce costs taking into consideration environment impact where ever possible in all ANS units taking into consideration all probable and realistic inspections.

Who Should Attend (Targeted Population)

- The course is designed for directors, managers, middle managers, air traffic controllers, engineering and technicians from ATM, aviation related to Air navigation services organization or agencies

Course Main Topics (Contents)

- The course has been designed for experienced personnel in the field of ATM and ANS, the program is divided into different modules designed to assist participants in acquiring the knowledge and skills pertaining to the ATM elements and services system and their auditing

Course Duration

- 1 Week

Minimum Number Of Trainees

- 6 – 12 trainees

Pre-Requisites

- Good command of English Language is essential to enable participants to communicate effectively in a group environment, prepare written assignments and make oral presentation.